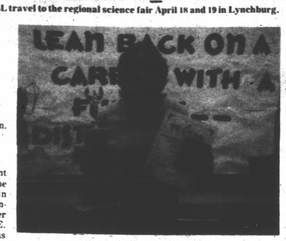
Robin Spiggle selected student of the month



Robin Spiggle

The student of the month, sponsored by the ACHS National Honor Society, recognizes deserving students as submitted and voted upon by the faculty. This month the faculty has selected Robin Spiggle as Student of the Month of March. Robin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David W. Spiggle.

Robin is very active in the school's DECA chapter. During March, she served as chairperson for the WTVR Radio Spot for Free Enterprise Week and co-chairperson of Free Enterprise Week. Robin was also recently selected as 1979-80 District 9 Student of the Year.

This honor reflects academics, character, morals, and a thorough knowledge of the Free Enterprise System.

Robin is the first student to receive this award in the history of D. E. in Appomattox County. Congratulations to Robin on her accomplishments in D. E. and for being selected as ACHS Student of the Month.

5 Appomattox students to attend model assembly

By Erma Austin

On April 10-12 the Virginia YMCA will sponsor its 33rd annual Model General Assembly in Richmond at the State Capitol.

Approximately 900 students from all over Virginia will participate in the three-day program. The program is designed to teach the theory and practice of the legislative process of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Chairman of the Model General Assembly Senator Elman T. Gray, will deliver the opening message to the assembly at St. Paul's Church on Thursday evening, April 10. J. T. Shropshire,, Clerk of the Senate, will swear in the

Raiderette tennis squad wins first two matches

The Appomattox girls' tennis team won its first two matches last week, defeating Randolph-Henry 6-3 Tuesday, and downing Gretna 5-4 Wednesday.

Linda Cowan, Bobbie McFadden, Kim Hipps and Dana Ford were all victorious in singles competition against Randolph Henry Tuesday in the season's first game against a non-conference opponent.

Cowan defeated Sherri Clements 8-0, McFadden beat Lisa Pettus 8-4, Hipps downed Merrianne Thompson 8-4 and Ford dropped Rebecca Smith 8-2.

The Raiderettes took two of three doubles matches as well. Cowan and Hipps combined to beat Clements and Smith of Randolph Henry, 8-6, Ford and McFadden teamed up to drop Anne Anderson and Bratton, 8-4.

Dana McGrath and Karen Covington lost singles matches against Susan Bratton and Anne Anderson of Randolph Henry, and the Raiderette doubles team of Rhonda Jaggars and Susan George lost to Anderson and Bratton of Randolph Henry.

Against Gretna, McFadden, Hipps, Dana Ford and Covington recorded victories in singles play.

McFadden dropped Kim Shelton 10-8, Hipps defeated Tina Saunders 8-1, Ford won over Jenny Jacobs 8-4, and Covington defeated Shelia Jacobs 8-1.

Dana Ford and Bobbie McFadden teamed up to win one of three doubles matches against Jacobs and Saunders of Gretna, 8-5.

Cowan and Hipps lost to Cheryl Jacobs and Kim Shelton 5-8, and Susan Johnson and Patti Roach fell to Niki Dobey and Jennifer Shelton of Gretna 5-1 in doubles action.

Dana McGrath and Linda Cowan lost in singles play for the Raiderettes.

Coach Lucy Harris noted that team co-captains have been elected, Linda Cowan and Kim Hipps. She said that Cowan, Hipps, Ford and McFadden are returning lettermen from last year.

The team is scheduled to play Jefferson Forest Thursday (away) at 3:30 and Randolph Henry next Wednesday (away) at 2:30.

Varsity loses first

The Appomattox Raiders varsity baseball team lost its season opener last week to the Gretna Hawks, 4-2.

The game was a tight pitchers' duel with Appomattox leading 2-1, until the top of the seventh inning, when Gretna scored three unearned runs to ice the game.

The Raiders took a 1-0 lead in the first inning when catcher Terry Woods hit a home run (the first home run hit at the new baseball field).

The Hawks tied the score in the top of the sixth inning, on a home run by first-baseman Berger, but in the bottom of the sixth Darrell Schrock scored after a sacrifice fly by Kenny Wayne Burks' to give the Raiders a 2-1 lead.

In the top of the seventh, Gretna had two singles and a walked batter to load the bases after the first batter flied out.

The second out came on a force out at the plate. Then with the count 3-and-2, the next batter hit a grounder toward second but the throw from Gus Paulette to Schrock was bobbled, allowing the winning runs to score.

The Raiders had five hits for the day, against Gretna's three. "We made one mistake, and it cost us the ball game," said coach Howard Claybough. Bucky Tottey of the Raiders was the only player on either team to have two hits; a double and a single.

The Raiders are scheduled to play Altavista Friday and Buckingham Tuesday (both games at home) and Brookville Wednesday at Brookville. All games start at 4 p.m.

ROBIN BRANCH OF GLADSTONE is shown here riding Doc's Dream Boy, a horse she trained herself and which took third and second-place honors the first two years of riding competition. Robin will participate in the Toga Horse Show slated for April 12 at 2 p.m.

Softball team wins two

The Appomattox Raiderette softball team won its second game against no losses last week, defeating Gretna, 18-5 in a contest coach Mary Tolley said was "never really close."

The Raiderettes exploded for six runs in the fourth inning and five runs in the seventh.

Annette Carter went three for four, hit a triple and scored two runs in the effort. Debbie Smith went two for four, scored three runs and hit a triple as well. Tolley also commended Jaquetta Booker for her three-for-five performance at the plate, which included a double, two runs batted in and three runs scored.

Robin Martin also hit a triple in the game, which saw Johnna Belter record her second victory against no losses this season.

Belter held Gretna to only five hits and one walk, and the team had an excellent defensive day, according to Tolley.

"Linda Preston got an unassisted double play and just missed a triple play," according to the coach. Debbie Smith and Angie also combined with Annette Carter to record double plays during the game, the coach added.

Gretna's only big inning was the fifth, when four Appomattox errors resulted in four Gretna runs.

For the Raiderettes, Preston had two hits, Carter three. Handy two, Smith two, Richardson two, Martin two, Booker three and Sherri Repass two.

The team is scheduled to play Altavista Friday and Brookville next Wednesday. Both games are away and scheduled to begin at 4 p.m.

Jaycees go 1-1

The Appomattox Junior Varsity baseball team went one and one against Nelson County in its first week of action this season.

The junior Raiders lost to Nelson 9-8 last Tuesday, and defeated the team 5-4 Thursday.

Tim Bennett recorded both the win and the loss. Pitchers aiding Bennett in the games including Greg Mayberry, M. J. House, Jody Williams, and Jim Hicks.

Coach John Justus said Adlen Edmonds got four hits in six times at bat for the two games, taking team hitting honors.

The team is slated to play Cumberland Tuesday at home. All home games will be played at the town ball park rather than at the high school, according to coach Justus.

youth legislators. Youth Governor, Barry Shawn Mines of Hot Springs will deliver his inaugural address.

Friday morning, Governor Dalton will speak to the young legislators. Friday evening at the John Marshall Hotel, there will be the Youth Inaugural Ball.

Each person that participates in the Model General Assembly has a specific role to play as a senator, delegate, page, reporter, lobbyist, committee chairman, officer or intern. The bills that are to be considered during the assembly are prepared months in advance by the young people and then reviewed by a committee of General Assembly legislators.

The Tri-Hi-Y club from the Appomattox County High School will be sending five participants. The students are Denise Jackson, delegate; Lynne Gordon, senator; Valerie Garret, intern; Blanche Bagby, page; and Erma Austin, reporter. Mrs. Katherine Dunevant, club sponsor, will also be attending.
